Saying of the week

It isn't the mountains ahead to climb that wear you down.
It's the pebble in your shoe.

Humour

There is an email going around offering processed pork, gelatine and salt in a can.

If you get this email, do not open it.
It's spam

Presentations to the Recipients of the Art Show profits.

John Calnin announced that the Art Show had gained profit of $9500.00 and it was his pleasure to make the presentations to the chosen recipient organisations.

- Riding Develops Abilities. Di McCann and Betty Minogue were presented with a cheque for $2500.00. The money will be used to assist with the cost of hiring horses, replacement of equipment and Registration fees of RDA. The development of confidence and physical abilities is the greatest reward which is made effective by the donation.

-Disabled Surfers Association. Philip Chisholm was also presented a cheque for $2500.00. He told those present that the growth of participation has increased from 40 to 130 plus. partially thanks to the money assisting in the purchase of specialised equipment needed for these people

-Trinity Aide For Refugees. John Calnin presented a cheque for $2000.00 to Shirley and David Hurley and David O'Connor. This money will go towards the collection of necessary everyday items and for legal fees when necessary. Most of the people came by boat and therefore have to apply for visas to stay in the country.

-Whittington Primary School. Leanne Alexander and Craig Smith accepted a cheque for $1000.00 that will be used for equipment for students especially in 'sensory spaces' where they can have time out from times of stress factors in the students lives. The aim of this facility is to try and break the generation cycle of distress both physical and psychological.

-Bellarine Teaching and Community Hub. Shane Cummings was presented with a cheque for $250.00 that will be used to support attendees at the hub who enter their Art Show every second year by way of prizes for winning entries.

All the recipients accepted the recognition and cheques with pleasure and gratitude. The members of the Club appeared pleased that the mounting of the Art Show achieved great support within the Community in very different ways especially as it will be used mostly in the local area.

Thank you, Alison George
