Saying of the week

A jellyfish has existed as a species for 500 million years, surviving just fine without a brain. That gives hope to quite a few people.

Joke of the week

A doctor, lawyer, and a Rotarian in charge of fundraising all die and arrive at the Pearly Gates about the same time. St. Peter tells them they may each have one thing to take with them to Heaven. The doctor is first, and asks for $1 million. This is given and proceeds to enter Heaven. The lawyer, not to be outdone, asks for $2 million. "Very well," say St. Peter and opens the gate to Heaven for the lawyer. Finally it is time for the Rotarian, who had just finished a fundraising project for The Rotary Foundation. St. Peter asks him what he would like to take to Heaven. The fundraiser moves up very close to St. Peter, and in a soft voice asks, "It it's not too much trouble, could I just have the names of those two people who were ahead of me in line?"

One liners

- A man spoke frantically into the phone: 'My wife is pregnant and her contractions are only two minutes apart'. 'Is this her first child?' the doctor asked. 'No!' the man shouted, 'This is her husband!'

Please remember:

You receive an email each week from our Secretary, Pearl Macmillan, asking about your attendance at the following meeting. - please respond when you get it - it's a very simple process.

- Gordon King, Art Show – Gordon advised that Avalon Airport has donated vouchers for two return airfares to the Gold Coast for the Art Show.
- Pearl Macmillan, Annual Report – Pearl thanked those who had submitted their reports and reminded the others that there was still ten days before they were due.
- Rod Bush, Administration – Rod advised that the role descriptions had been sent out. They need significant editing so please send your feedback to Rod.
- Janet Alexander, Footy Tipping – Xenia Williamson won the last round with nine winners.
- Gary O'Donnell is still leading by two points from Alan Keyse and four ahead of three third placed tippers.

Harry Hanley: Five On Me

Harry was born in Pennsylvania and grew up in Florida, close to the space launch centre. He has had a long connection with Australia. He was working part-time at a Tech company in 1986 where he met an Australian, Clive Frazer. Clive had a Ph.D. in Geomatics (Engineering).

This inspired Harry to undertake a degree in electrical engineering. He then went back to work in that company. However, Clive moved back to Australia and was working at the University of Melbourne. Harry then came to Melbourne to do a Ph.D. in Geomatics under Clive's supervision. Geomatics is a method of measuring objects in three dimensions. It is used in the design and assembly of large items such as ships and planes to improve efficiency.

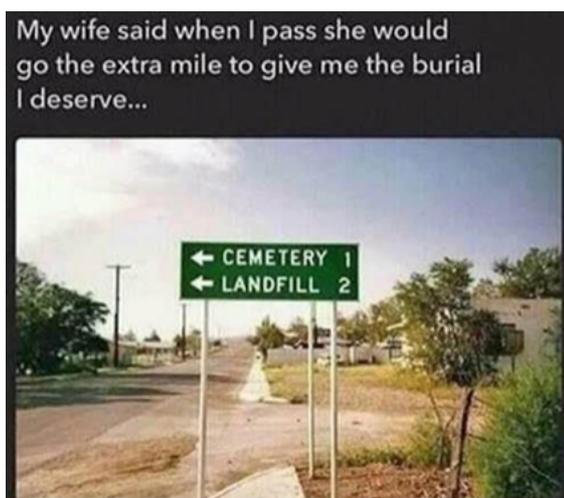

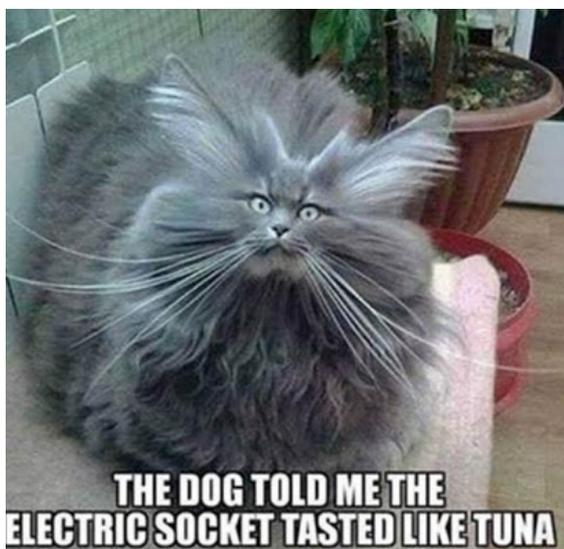

In 2006, Harry and Clive Frazer started a company measuring crime scenes for the police. This company was bought out by the American Tech company he had originally worked for in Florida. So, Harry was working for them again. He recently returned to Florida with his family to work over there again. This was mainly to allow his mother to get to spend time with their children.

They have recently returned to Australia. While the business is based in Florida, their customers are large manufacturers located throughout the world. Thus, he can function from Ocean Grove as well as anywhere. Harry played soccer for many years. He used cycling as a training mechanism. After retiring from soccer, he started to participate in cycle racing. He now rides for pleasure.

• A video, 'The Impossible Float' by Jarrod Brood was played. This was introduced by Noel Emselle. It highlights the problems caused by waste plastic in the ocean and was shot in Port Phillip Bay.

Next week's activities To be Advised. However, it will possibly be on Zoom again.

I have a pencil that used to be owned by William Shakespeare.
But he chewed it a lot. Now I can't tell if it's 2B or not 2B.

Did some financial planning and it looks like I can retire at 62 and live comfortably for eleven minutes.

NOW THAT I'VE LIVED THROUGH AN ACTUAL PLAGUE, I TOTALLY UNDERSTAND WHY ITALIAN RENAISSANCE PAINTINGS ARE FULL OF NAKED FAT PEOPLE LAYING ON COUCHES.

Masks are the new bra...

They aren't comfortable, you only wear them in public, people will notice when you DON'T wear one, and you can now get them in every color pattern and style.
