Bulletin Notes for 7th January 2020

Raffle sales and BBQ. President Marion Walton thanked everyone for their efforts selling tickets at the caravan parks and catering for the subsequent BBQ at Bill Stains 'Sacred Place'. It was a Fabulous night. 39 members and partners collected at four parks - Riverside, Collendina, Barwon Heads and Wynndean.

Market Report. John Paton provided the following data on last Sunday's market: Site Fees - $645; Market Raffle - $306; BBQ - $1,274 gross. While there was a slow start, numbers increased during the morning and some stall holders continued until 2 pm.

Bush Fire Appeal. Collectors from the Surf Life Saving Club, CFA and Rotary collected funds on behalf of the Bush Fire Appeal at the Sunday market. A total of $12,200 was raised. Driftwood Cafe pledged a further $1 for every cup of coffee they sell in the coming week which could amount of a further couple of thousand dollars. The fire brigade collected in the main street as well as at the market. Stall holders were also generous with their support. Overall, a tremendous effort.

Tuesday 14th Jan, is a Brewery Visit, followed by Burgers. 5.45pm at 1/32 Marine Parade in the Ocean Grove Industrial Estate. Dinner will involve classic or vegetarian burgers, Kranski Sausage option had to be pre-ordered. Cost $20. At this stage, 62 are attending.
