

The Great Barwon River Corporate Duck Race

April 8th, 2023 @ 12:00pm

Get your business involved in a great charity event that will quack you up! The Great Barwon River Corporate Charity Duck Race is here!

Picture this: heaps of decorated ducks racing down a river while wearing tiny business suits and briefcases, beer cans or bicycles, tin sheds and toilets!

It's like Mardi Gras meets Moomba!

But that's not all - your company can get involved too! For a only $200, you can sponsor your very own corporate duck and customise its outfit. Just think of the endless possibilities - your duck could be wearing your corporate colours, carrying a tiny toolbox, or even showing off your product!

And the best part? All proceeds from the event go to great local causes. So, not only will you be able to enjoy the spectacle of the race, but you'll also be contributing to a charitable organization that's making a difference in the world.

So, what are you waiting for? Let's get quacking and make a difference!

Duck modifications - please follow the following guidelines

- Flags, paint, wraps, stickers are fine
- No sails, motors or alterations below the waterline
- Limited modifications ok above the waterline - eg a beer can adhered to the ducks back is ok, a surfboard that may act as a sail is not. No mods to significantly advantage one over the rest.

Event organisers will review all entries 3 days prior to takeoff and may exclude or modify entries that break the spirit of these guidelines. By purchasing a duck you agree to these race guidelines.
